- Author: Mihai (Constantin)
- Abstract: This article addresses philosophy of religion from the perspective of the structure of religious consciousness, of the kind which governs the Philosophie des religions by Nae Ionescu, leader of a productive Romanian school of thought from the interwar period. It deals with the receptive character of consciousness which lies at the heart of knowledge, conceived of as the partial reflection of a totality. This structure consists of a thought which synthesis the entire meaning of religion.
