Théorie de la littérature et pratique de la censure au temps du romantisme

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work: Censure et critique
- Author: Vaillant (Alain)
- Abstract: Censorship's real enemy is freedom of speech (thus political newspapers), not literature at all. Literature, which became by default an indirect way to take part in the ideological field, gained dignity more than it lost freedom. Furthermore, this underlying censorship favored a general poetics of implicit meaning and irony which have since characterized esthetics of "modernity".
