La République, l'école et les Poilus...

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work:
La Grande Guerre des écrivains : études
- Author: Nourry-Namur (Ghislaine Gabrielle)
- Abstract: The question of sources is crucial for historians of the three wars, 1870, 1914, and 1940; indirect for Zola, literary for the Great War, and direct for the war of 1940. And “those of 14”? Here we have the Lettres de Poilus. How could this aged group, not long ago utterly incapable of expressing themselves through language, find the words and sounds of the heart? It is time to give it a place in the school of the Republic.
