« Sortir des arbres par des moyens d’arbres » Le Discours de la servitude volontaire et la tradition du « discours naturel » (Antiquité – xvi^e siècle)

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work:
Nature et naturel
. Autour du Discours de la servitude volontaire
- Author: Guerrier (Olivier)
- Abstract: Re-inscribing the Discours in the tradition of “natural discourse”, Olivier Guerrier seeks to understand the language of La Boétie as one which constructs itself at the moment of being tested. It is thus not only the system of production or the order of discourse which finds itself transformed but also the system of reception : La Boétie invokes and convokes a reader who is as free as the words which are addressed to him or her.
