Beaumarchais et le personnage de théâtre

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work: Nouveaux regards sur la trilogie de Beaumarchais
- Author: Marchand (Sophie)
- Abstract: The thought of the protagonist seems to guide Beaumarchais's creative approach and determines the invention of an original dramaturgy. Seeking to render classic types more complex, and to make characters into real theatrical individuals, the playwright proceeds to deconstruct generic habits and explode traditional psychology. By inscribing his heroes in a temporality which surpasses the limits of theatrical form, he places the question of identity at the heart of his theatre.
