L'écrivain journaliste au Québec L'exemple de Berthelot Brunet

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work:

- Author: Biron (Michel)
- Abstract: This article examines the fortunes of the writer-journalist, who embodies in Quebec a certain ideal of literary versatility, or polygraphy. It is based on the example of Berthelot Brunet (1901-1948), a columnist who considered journalism and, more generally, polygraphy as a way to put his writing freedom into practice.
