The initial poems in Horace's poetry-books

- Publication type: Article from a collective work
- Collective work:
Pratiques latines de la dédicace
. Permanence et mutations, de l'Antiquité à la Renaissance
- Author: Harrison (Stephen)
- Abstract: This paper questions the links that the dedicatory poems of all Horace's books have with the poet's career : the examination of the successive dedicatees shows Horace's ascension in the Roman cultural milieux culminating with the dedication to Augustus himself (Epistles II, 1).
