- Author: Malaguti (Maurizio)
- Abstract: We are faced with two radical alternatives : in the beginning, was there silence or, on the contrary, the word ? Is it not absurd and contradictory to admit that the silence of our origins finishes by abandoning itself in order to interrogate itself, entrusting it to an abyss in nihilum ? Our silence is the conquest of apophatism : it expresses our fundamental inability to understand the Word of origin.
